Business Ownership Ideas By Stella Carrier Books such as 55 Surefire Homebased Businesses; You Can Start Under $5,000 by Entrepreneur Press Cheryl Kimball fills a thinking outside the box need in a media market where there is an abundance of articles on cutting back on one's current income (as a way towards attaining financial freedom) but scarce on legal ways to increase financial net worth on a budget. There is an abundance of fascinating home based business ideas in this book such as interior decorator, massage therapist, home inspection, personal concierge, event planning, gift basket service, daycare, and pet sitting. There are information snapshots into how the business affects a person's living residence, things to consider, how you will spend your day, and expansion possibilities (such as the case study for marketing copywriter on pages 176-178). 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Good Information - but Found it for Free by searching (After paying $16.00)! By CustomerNot a bad book - I liked the contents, but was disappointed that 1) it included EXACTLY the same material I had seen on MSN.Com - which had prompted me to purchase the book, and 2) I found ALL of the information for free by Googling this morning. I was looking for another idea - and found exactly, word for word, what I paid $16.95 for. So although I didn't have to print it (wasting my ink and paper) and I do like to highlight (I buy very few books - I purchase almost everything in Kindle format - I was not happy to have spent that kind of money for something that was found to be free. I felt somehow betrayed - and definitely disappointed. So before you purchase - do a good search. I don't like to be taken advantage of - and I feel like I was (although I really wasn't - I was just frustrated to have spent money I didn't need to spend.) 4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. out of date By cbToo much of it does not apply any more. Do not waste your money. You can do better just googling for tips.
