Words are grouped by situation, description, etc so you can quickly find just the right word or phrase to accurately describe your service or product. For example, say you need to eliminate customer balking and justify a high price. There happens to be a category for "Justifying A High Price," how about that? With words and phrases like: "_____ may cost more, but it's worth it." "Isn't it better to spend a little more now, instead of a lot more later?" "Pays for itself many times over." "A _____ you'll be proud to own." "Every distinguished home should have _____" And plenty of words such as "Distinctive, Heirloom-Quality, Handcrafted, Superior".... you get the idea. There's categories for Fresh, Wholesome, Healthful, Money-Making, Security, Peaceful.... whatever descriptive words you might need for your particular business. If you have experienced frustration at communicating the value of your product/service to clients, BUY THIS BOOK. Your business and your children's college fund will thank you.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great for ideas, but who says these words sell? By M. R. T. Just need a list of different words that will make your marketing more colorful. This is it. A big catalog of words divided up by the characteristics you want to get across. Don't expect any rationale. This is just a big list of words. So for some people, that might lower it to 1-3 stars. But, I appreciate what the "author" has done here. My only complaint is he doesn't say anything to back up his claims why these words sell more than other words. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Perfect For Online Sellers By 2 Many Books This book was recommended to me by one of the women in an online handmade seller group that I belong to. Online sellers constantly struggle with writing powerful, catchy product descriptions and headlines and this book gives you tons of ideas to work with. I'm slowly working through my listings and updating them which will hopefully increase my sales. Highly recommend.
